

Backcountry Ski and Splitboard Course Equipment List

A full range of conditions and temperatures can be expected in the New Zealand mountains in winter and participants on ski and splitboard courses need to be suitably prepared with suitable clothing, eyewear, and ski or splitboard touring equipment. Your guide will do a comprehensive check of your gear at the start of the day to ensure your equipment is in good working order and fit for purpose.

If there is anything you don't have, need to borrow, or have any questions, please get in contact with us. There is further gear advice available in our Knowledge Base.

Logistics

We are based in Wānaka, which is an easy 1-hour transfer from the nearest international airport in Queenstown by bus or private transfer.

If you need accommodation in Wānaka during the course, shared and private rooms are available for clients in our Kea Lodge, which is adjacent to the WMG Base.

Unless otherwise agreed, trips start at the WMG Base at 8:00 on the first day of the course where there is off-street car parking and luggage storage available. It is also possible to arrange to be picked up from accommodation in town.

Equipment

We work with MT Outdoors for ski touring equipment hire and Wānaka Splitboard Rentals. Get in touch with them early for discuss your requirements as availability may be limited at busy times of the year.

We recommend a transceiver with a marking function, a robust shovel with a telescopic handle and a robust 240cm length probe. These can be provided. Check out our Knowledge Base for more advice on equipment selection for ski and splitboard touring.

Course resources can be downloaded from our Downloads page.

Insurance

WMG fees do not include insurance for personal circumstances (including but not limited to travel, injury, medical, and equipment).

We strongly recommend you obtain:

- Travel insurance to cover you in the event of a trip cancellation by either you or us, for trip changes, or for medical emergencies to cover you for your personal health needs;
- Personal and third-party insurance is required to cover damage or loss of equipment and property.

We do not accept liability, responsibility, or any expenses for insurance-related costs incurred by participants in preparation for or participation in our trips and courses.
